

The directors of Briscoe Group Limited are pleased to advise that the company will be admitted to the official list of ASX, as a foreign exempt entity, effective from 12:00 pm (Sydney time) Wednesday 19 July 2017, under the entity registered as Briscoe Group Australasia Limited. Official Quotation of the Group's securities will commence at 11:00 am (Sydney time) on Thursday 20 July 2017.

The entity has been allocated the ASX code of BGP.

Group Managing Director, Rod Duke said, "We believe that the greater visibility from a dual-listing will contribute to increased investor interest and a broader shareholder base which will increase our ability to take advantage of fresh opportunities that we identify".
